CONCLUSIONS

- The capitalist system more than ever, generates the oppression and subjugation of youth and more strongly to women with various tactics to deviate from the path of building a different and better, thus generating the double oppression of women, be part of the people, to have low wages, to respond to the dictates of the system, creating stereotypes of women, but in the same way youth has faced a major fight through all the onslaught of imperialism and capitalism. Without us it becomes more difficult to achieve the revolution without women is not possible to speak of a true overthrow of the capitalist system in the construction of Socialism.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

- The few opportunities and accessibility for women and men, young people are the product of the struggle of the people.
- Job opportunities for young women are not according to our needs, unemployment remains very high rates, yet the choice is not to be filled by women, we are not an option in a capitalist world, the best option still remain the men and thus continue to be covered by them.
- Not having a liberating education serves only backward and outdated systems and solutions that makes us very fast, since there is no sense liberation of women and worse of our peoples and thus creates us to conform with little they give us, with the disrespect of the rights of women

. SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

- The media are more violent influence on youth, retention, dissemination and creation of new stereotypes continue to play the capitalist ideas views from views of sexism, alcoholism, drug addiction, confusing and far removed from reality, so that does not allow to generate awareness of emancipation, having us under a new policy in isolation from, isolating the organization.

PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN'S MOVEMENTS AND POLICY

- Women do not feel part of the movements, women's organizations do not feel the need to organize the attack to isolate the woman is bearing fruit in some of the most vulnerable in our society, we are used and removed control options for our participation.
- For late capitalist system are not a policy option, we consider weak and fragile political development.
