

To the World Women: 1 year after the 1st World Women's Conference

Dear Worldwomen!

Exactly one year ago – on March 8 2011 – the inspiring first World Women's Conference of rank and file women ended. Courageous statements concerning our future were made in the final resolution:

- Political goals regarding the rise for the liberation of women worldwide!

WORLD WOMEN'S CONFERENCES EVERY FIVE YEARS!

Annual joint days of action and struggle on 8th March/ 1st May/ 25th November!

Strengthening of the militant women's movement in the individual countries!

METHODS OF ORGANIZING AN INTERNATIONAL, MUTUAL EXCHANGE OF OPINIONS AND

EXPERIENCE, OF LEARNING AND COORDINATION PROCESSES!

INTENSIFYING OF THE WORLDWIDE COMMUNICATION!

- Attracting new fellows and future supporters for upcoming World Women's Conferences!

To improve communication the resolution says:

“Let us work together across country and language borders! Let us use our rich potentials of our experience and cultures! Let us use the different forms of communication, coordination and cooperation in order to deepen and widen our common work. Let us break all barriers by using alternative forms of communication and mutual solidarity in order to strengthen the militant world women's movement ."

The European "Worldwomen" not only affirmed these intentions on the first European Conference on 7 January 2012 but there were also some women who directly engaged themselves in designing this new website.

Today on March 8 2012, the 101st International Women's Day, this website goes online and thereby sends greetings to all of you, to our combatants and all interested women.

It is a special highlight content-wise that today, for the first time, the voluminous protocol of the General Assembly at the World Women's Conference is published

(written by the elected German keeper of the minutes) as well as other protocols of the workshops (Talleres) that we received from Venezuela.

The aim of the new homepage is to inform more modern and up-to-date with stronger networks, more concentrated and international than before and to organize the exchange. And most of all: This website is supposed to step-by-step invite more and more "Worldwomen" from all over world to become active contributors. Thus, we already have quite a few contributions and greetings for 8 March from around the globe.

To fill this website with live will be a learning process of course! We are looking forward to getting reports and letters, pictures and films!

Critics and suggestions are also very welcome!

Vamos mujeres – that is true for our great joint projects as well as for this website!

We wish you and all of us a lot of joy and success with it!

YOUR EUROPEAN COORDINATORS FOR THE PREPARATION OF THE WORLD WOMEN'S
