Re: Free Women's Congress' KJA reports on the current war in the Kurdistan Region in Turkey

Date: Friday, 29 Jan 2016

Dear friend,

We are writing to you as the Free Women's Congress (KJA), the largest umbrella organization for the women in Kurdistan Region in Turkey. KJA brings together the women from political parties, local governments, civil society organisations, unions, media, academy, and local people's assemblies and communes. Consisting of 501 women delegates, KJA represents women from diverse identity groups, ethnic, faith and cultural backgrounds.

We would like to inform you about the ferocious war launched by the Turkish State on the peoples of Kurdistan Region since the June 7 general elections in Turkey.

Please find attached the reports prepared by KJA about the assaults particularly on the women and children, the cemeteries and the historical sites, and the overall impact of the curfews and 'special security zones' on the peoples of the region:
