INTRODUCTION

YOUNG WOMEN table, consisting of several organizations in the world and a broad and interesting discussion we find several national reality, as in Germany that women workers are paid 24% less in salaries than men. In all Latin American countries we have the problem of early pregnancy, some experiences faced by young women of the world were exchanged in this workshop. This has helped us to conclude that women in a unified way as follows:

The international crisis has led to a weakening of the capitalist system, yet continues to generate the oppression and subjugation of youth and more strongly to women with various tactics to deviate from the path of building a different and better system, generating the double oppression of women, as workers and as women, but these shocks has awakened to the youth who have faced significantly against the actions of imperialism and capitalism.

The organization of youth movements of the hand is the need to deepen the proletarian organization in the direction of the majority party, the party of the working class. Without us it becomes more difficult to achieve the revolution without women is not possible to speak of a real overthrow the capitalist system in the construction of Scientific Socialism.

OB OPPORTUNITIES

The few opportunities and accessibility for women and men, young people are the product of the struggle of the people, but these are not according to our true needs, unemployment remains very high rates, unemployment continues to generate crime, homelessness Generally deepening the contradictions of the capitalist system.

Still need an education for liberation of people to seek prompt and appropriate solutions to advance a more just and egalitarian society.

I. SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

The fun is now considered as one element that helps to strengthen the system by isolating the youth of the real struggle, media influence are more violent towards youth, retention, dissemination and creation of new stereotypes continue reproducing capitalist ideas views from views of sexism, alcoholism, drug addiction, sexuality, confusing and far removed from reality, so that does not allow to generate awareness of emancipation, having us under a new policy in isolation from, isolating the the organization.

III. PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN'S MOVEMENTS AND POLICY

Women by their class is not an option for release and therefore not feel part of the movements, women's organizations do not feel the need to organize the attack to isolate the woman is bearing fruit in some of the most vulnerable in our society, we are used and eliminate the control options for our participation.

1. We present our support and solidarity to all and the oppressed around the world, young women, to the colleagues of the Middle East, all, migrants and all the politically persecuted revolutionaries who seek a real change.

2. We reject the actions of imperialism and capitalism, and work to destroy this system is building socialism, the only way out of the oppression of women, youth and people.

3. We feel the need to generate policies for the youth movement, giving a boost to political organizations, in recognition that women have had access to their rights, and we take responsibility for strengthening youth activism in the women's movement specifically and politicians in general in our countries, specific policies for women.

4. Fight against sexism, we want the same rights not only written on paper, but transformed into reality, we need equal opportunity, equal hours, equal pay, discussion of reproductive rights, women's decision on their bodies, special protection women, being a mother means a possibility and not a necessity, and that this would reduce teenage pregnancy rates generated mainly in Latin America.

5. Constant struggle against a dominant image of women, a stereotype of a woman who wants to impose imperialism, through the media and make it a superficial and individualistic women, which seeks the support of the capitalist system.

6. Debate and discussion of sex education that includes a gender perspective, reproduction and sexuality in children and adolescents and promote it as state policy.

7. Fun, sport, culture and ecology should be used as a tool to incorporate the young people, women in the work of political organizations.

. The participation of women in the revolutionary camp and the Anti-imperialist Anti-Fascist Youth 2012-Venezuela.

9. Equal participation without discrimination of women in political and social organizations.

10. Struggle over claims to the young woman as child care at all sites, job security, time of women as mothers in the workplace to enable the development of policy actions.

11. We stand for land reforms, land democratization and socialization of the means of production and opportunities for youth to access and job opportunities worldwide.

12. Meeting diffusion of documentaries and experiences, to disseminate knowledge about women's issues to the youth in order to change consciousness through social networks and media.

13. Strengthen international support for the anti-fascist struggles, anti-capitalist and anti-imperialist women, fighting back to include all partners without discrimination on the political level, to change social realities and move forward in developing the women's movement in each country.

14. The World Conference of Grassroots Women enables the exchange of experiences and therefore it is necessary to achieve the World Conference on Women's Base.

15. The workshop in solidarity with the companion case of Romina Tejerina of Argentina and calls for their immediate release.
