

Solidarity with Marikana Lonmin mine workers, who were killed by South African Police Force.
When they took place on the strike of increment of their salaries.

South African protests concerning with their service delivery - also they where killed by the police.

South African Police must stop killing the ordinary people when they protest for their rights.

18.09.2012